SHOW INFORMATION

The Rat Pack Productions Ltd presents

Nathan Cassidy: the frog that says sausages

Leicester Comedy Festival. The Criterion - Sun Feb 14th 2010 at 9.30pm (1hr)

Stand-up with Nathan Cassidy

Tickets £6 (£5) available from www.comedy-festival.co.uk or 08444771000

www.nathancassidy.com

The award-winning Midlands stand-up returns home with work in progress towards his Royal Variety Performance. For this he will drop anything remotely offensive and replace it with a routine that every man, woman and child in the world will adore. See the offensive stuff for the final time...on Valentine's Day.

'Cassidy is quite an incredible act...gloriously entertaining through sheer energy and chutzpah...reminiscent of, but thankfully not derivative of, an early Vic Reeves.' CHORTLE.co.uk

Stars Nathan Cassidy.

Nathan has gigged all over the country including London's Comedy Store and Ealing Studios, The Komedia (Brighton) and the Buzz (Manchester) and last year performed his full length show 'Tainted Laugh' on the London Fringe.

He is an award winning writer and writes for radio, screen and theatre - the play based on his first novel 'The Cure for the Common Cold' won the Sir Michael Caine award for new writing in 2007.

Nathan is currently writing with star of BBC's 'Bodies' Simon Lowe; a sitcom script has been filmed for pilot, and a radio sitcom has been developed with Hat Trick and has been proposed to BBC Radio 4.

Nathan is gigging in the major London venues as well as those of other UK cities.

Following its Leicester Comedy Festival show, the show will be performed at the Brighton and Edinburgh Comedy Festivals in 2010.
